- University Regulations resulting from them, may result in the University suspending your studies and informing the Home Office that your sponsorship has been withdrawn.
- 3.4 The University has the right to suspend your studies if at any time it discovers that you do not have valid leave to remain in the UK
- 3.5 The University is required to withdraw sponsorship of your Student Visa if you do not comply with Home Office rules, including but not limited to:
 - (a) your failure to meet the minimum attendance requirements;
 - (b) your failure to make suitable academic progression on your course;
 - (c) your failure to provide evidence that you have valid leave to remain in the UK;
 - (d) your registration being terminated;
 - (e) you choosing to withdraw from your course;
 - (f) you successfully completing your course of study in a shorter period than originally planned. Further information on the rules can be found under Visa Compliance at_www.buckingham.ac.uk/about/handbooks/compliance-handbook/
- 3.6 If you choose to withdraw from your studies or if your enrolment and registration is terminated by the University, or Medical School, this will affect the validity of your Student Visa sponsored by the University and your ability to enter and remain in the United Kingdom.
- 3.7 If your visa is revoked for any reason, the University will terminate the Contract, and suspend or terminate your enrolment.
- 3.8 On occasion, the University will need to contact the Home Office to clarify details on outstanding visa applications and previous immigration history. By accepting these terms and conditions of study, you consent to the University contacting the Home Office on your behalf and the Home Office releasing such information to the University.
- 3.9 If your studies are extended beyond the normal period of study for any reason, such that you will be required to apply to the Home Office for a further Student visa for leave to remain in the UK to complete your studies, the University has the right to refuse the issue of a Certificate of Acceptance for Studies (CAS), if the University is of the opinion that the conditions attaching to the specific visa application would result in it being refused by the Home Office.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION

- 4.1 Your admission to the University, attendance and engagement with the MB ChB course and right to enjoy any of the privileges of membership of the University, including access to services and facilities, is subject to you complying with the terms of the Contract and enrolling and registering with the University.
- 4.2 If you do not enrol and register within 10 working days of the start of the term that your course begins, the University reserves the right to refuse to register you and to withdraw you from your course without liability, unless prior permission for late registration has been given by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences. Students who are not enrolled and registered are not entitled to attend classes or to participate in assessments for the programme.
- To register with the University, you must have attained eighteen years of age at the beginning of the second term of the MB ChB programme, except where the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences has granted to a named student an exemption from this condition. If you will be 17 years old or younger before the end of the term the Medical School reserves the right to withdraw your application, or any Offer, and defer it to the next academic year.

Before registration can be completed you must complete all the required forms, satisfy the University that you have the ability to pay your fees and cover your maintenance expenditure and that in all respects you are a fit and proper person to become a member of the University.
